~~Our Dr. Seuss activity today goes along with the book, There's a Wocket in my Pocket. After reading this book, you can either have students make these pockets or you can make them prior to the lesson. I just folded a 12x9 piece of light blue construction paper in half and cut out a pocket shape.~~

~~The cat is perhaps the pet that can better enter into contact with the emotions and feelings of men. Here the painter, two years before his death, depicts a feline mother and child scene with the same grace used in many of his paintings portraying mothers and children. The three kittens crowd around the mother cat, who remains apparently impassive in her silent pride.~~
