The life of faith is not a life of mounting up with wings, but a life of walking and not fainting. You may not feel like you're mounting up with wings like eagles right now, and that's okay. The life of faith isn't always a mountaintop. Sometimes, your faith is demonstrated in the fact that you keep walking, and you don't faint.

I call it secular faith because it is devoted to a form of life that is bounded by time. In accordance with the Latin meaning of the word secularis, to have secular faith is to be dedicated to persons or projects that are worldly and temporal. Secular faith is the form of faith that we all sustain in caring for someone or something that is vulnerable to loss.
