Manual is an off-road vehicle produced by International Harvester from 1961 to 1980. A precursor of more sophisticated SUVs to come, it was created as a competitor to the Jeep, and it initially featured a fold-down windshield. The Scout and second-generation Scout II were produced in Fort Wayne, Indiana, as two-door trucks with a removable hard top with options of a ...

1978 International Harvester Scout Additional Info: Really solid 1978 International Scout II Rallye in Terra Cotta with white top. I bought this truck about seven years ago. It had it's original paint and interior when I got it, the only rust on the truck was above the rear wheels on the rear quarter panels. It was in such good shape I decided to do a frame on restoration and replaced the two
