Just Hospitality: God’s Welcome in a World of Difference ...

In this book, theologian Letty Russell redefines the commonly held notion of hospitality as she challenges her readers to consider what it means to welcome the stranger. In doing so, she implores persons of faith to join the struggles for justice.Rather than an act of limited, charitable welcome, Russell maintains that true hospitality is a...

Just hospitality : God’s welcome in a world of difference ...

Hospitality, for Russell, is God’s welcome to us all in our differences. We seek to embody God’s welcome even as we discover God’s presence in the others who receive our welcome. In receiving the stranger, we have “entertained angels without knowing it” (Heb. 13:2).

Just Hospitality: God’s Welcome in a World of Difference ...

Grace is the hospitality of God to welcome sinners not because of their goodness but because of his glory. If God chose not to magnify the glory of his own self-sufficiency, and instead to enrich himself by looking for talented and virtuous housemates, there would be no grace in the world, and no hospitality, and no salvation.

Strategic Hospitality | Desiring God

Generous, authentic and warm hospitality is life-giving to all who worship with you. And though the gestures are often small, they are still important because they give a significant message to people: You are valued. You are a person of God and we welcome you in the name of Christ.

Hospitality in Worship: A Reflection of God’s Gracious ...

In Scripture, Russell sees God’s welcome or hospitality as having four overlapping components: unexpected divine presence, advocacy for the marginalized, mutual welcome and creation of community. For the church today, hospitality must be viewed as a central issue for those who want the church to matter in the larger culture.

God has found hospitality in Mary’s womb and now he walks the streets of Bethlehem seeking it elsewhere. Will God sleep in the streets on his birth night? The innkeeper redeems humanity with a welcome to a stable, most likely a cave. And God’s first breath of human air is a mixture of filed hay, animal poop, damp earth, and cold cave.
