The logical reasoning section of the Law School Admissions Test (LSAT) is one of the most important on the entire exam. This is because the exam's structure features sections that are weighted, with logical reasoning taking the lion's share of weight when determining your final score on the LSAT. The logic games section and the reading comprehension section are each weighted at 25%, while the LSAT logical reasoning section takes a whopping 50% of your entire LSAT exam grade.
