Listening skills also help in negotiating with students and defusing any potential classroom conflicts. Listening is a two-way process: you, as the teacher do most of the talking but you must also learn to listen to the students; the students spend a lot of time listening to you, and will also benefit from improved listening skills.

How to Improve Your Listening and Speaking Skills in EFL ...

Teaching young students how to speak is the most important area of learning. The best practice embeds speaking and listening across all aspects and areas of their education. Students use speaking and listening to solve problems, speculate, share ideas, make decisions and reflect on what is important. Social relations in the classroom depend on talk, and students' confidence and attitudes to learning are affected by friendships and positive interaction.
