Poulton 's drawings are equally as explicit but are often humorous and all are filled with a great joy, a gleeful relish, for the pleasures of sex. It was only after Poulton 's death in 1963 that his secret sketchbooks came to light. Then in the 1990s, Beecher Moore sold a considerable part of his large collection of erotic drawings which brought a new generation to Poulton 's work and started a reappraisal of his career as an artist.
