Wings in the Night, Part 1 contains six wonderful tales about the creatures of the night known as vampires. I read that Maggie's line of vampire stories are the original ones, the ones that came before. You will see they are people just like you and me. You'll fall in love at least once. Maybe more. If

MISTAKE: Yikes, my wings burnt to a crisp! Chicken wings can go from raw to burnt in minutes if your grill is too hot. Our favorite way to grill wings is to have "cool" and "hot" sides of the grill. Light one side of the grill to 350° to 400° (medium-high) heat; leave other side unlit.

Preheat your oven to 350 F. Line a baking sheet or pan with foil and place the wings on top of the sheet in a single layer. Heat the wings for about 15 or 20 minutes, or until heated all the way through. You don't need to cover the wings while they reheat, doing so could make them soggy and less appetizing.
